West Tytherley Newsletter

23rd October 2015

We wish you all a fantastic half term break and look forward to seeing you back at school on Tuesday 3rd November.

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

This week we have been thinking about Anger and Self-Control. I hope that if any of us lose our tempers we are able to say sorry and try harder next time! Next week it is Half Term, which I hope that you enjoy. During Half Term it will be Halloween

The word Halloween comes from 'All Hallows Evening' – the evening before All Saints Day (1st Nov). As All Saints Day is a 'Feast Day' people were urged, on Halloween, to eat no meat – thus the use of apples and pumpkins! I hope that you have a safe time and do come to East Tytherley Church at 9.30am on Sunday 1st November and learn more about All Saints Day! (This 'Short but Sweet' Service usually ends with everyone getting a sweet too...)

CHECK YOUR UNIFORM!!

Please can you take advantage of the half term break to check your child's school uniform and return to school any items belonging to other children that have been brought home by mistake!

Thank you .

FIRST AID TRAINING

We are offering all parents the opportunity to have first aid training with Nicky Atkins. If you are interested after half term please see the school office and let us know, the training is normally 2 hours minimum and costs start from £15.00 depending how long the course runs. There is limited space so please let us know if you are interested .
