'Eleven Plus' Position Statement

The Eleven Plus selection procedure is designed to determine whether or not children in the autumn term of their final year at primary school are suitable for admission to a grammar school.

The school recognises that any arrangement for undertaking the 11+ is a parental choice and often dependent upon location of residence. Any parents wishing to enter their children for this examination, do so voluntarily.

As a Hampshire school, we are unable to provide additional tuition for the Eleven Plus within the school curriculum, however we will always encourage any child undertaking this examination, and provide them with the pastoral support during this process. Any external tuition must be a private arrangement.

At WTPS, we want every child to be the best that they can be, taking every opportunity to achieve and exceed their potential academically and in all areas of learning. We have high aspirations for all our children, encouraging them to achieve the top academic levels.
