Thought for the Week

This week, on Monday, we learned about Saint Andrew (whose special day is 30th November). We heard that he was the best of the disciples at listening – and always wanted to help Jesus in his work. We heard about him being the patron saint of Scotland and that the Scottish flag was a combination of blue – the colour of the clothes he was said to wear – and the X shaped cross on which he was killed. We also learned a little a bit about making the sign of the cross as a way of saying ‘hello’ to God.

RESIDENTIAL TRIP OAK CLASS

Class 3's residential trip will be upon us sooner than we can think.

The children are going to Liddington Multi Activity School leaving on 8th February—12th February 2016 spending 5 days and 4 nights there.

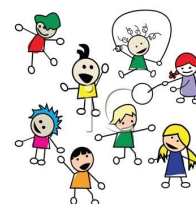

Miss Hodgson will be sending out a letter to all parents concerned with details of this trip.

There will also be a meeting for all parents involved to attend and for any questions you may need to ask.

The amount per child will be £ 210.00

If you can we would appreciate a deposit being paid of £50 and interim payments after that.

If anyone has any concerns about paying this amount please let the school office know and we will endeavour to help any way we can.
