6th January - Spring Term

Dear Parents/Carers

I hope that you had a wonderful Christmas. Happy New Year to all of you !

The children seem really excited to be back at school which is lovely to see. In a strange way it is good to have some structure and routine back again.

We have a very busy yet exciting term ahead, starting with our Parents evening next week and lots of exciting trips and workshops. Willow class are looking forward to visiting Butser Farm next week too.

Chestnut and Beech class have a 'Fairy tales and Fables' workshop coming up in February which will be exciting for them to be part of.

In the meantime, we shall try to keep you informed through our curriculum letters that you will shortly be receiving and through regular notices within our weekly newsletters.

Please do not hesitate to speak to any member of staff should you have any questions.

HAPPY 2017 !

LUNCHTIME SUPERVISOR VACANCY

We have a vacancy for a lunchtime supervisor commencing 1st February. Should you be interested in this position, we would welcome your application.

Don't forget to sign up for Parents Evening next week, or ring us and we will book an appointment for you.

Tues 10th & Thurs 12th January

BUTSER FARM THURSDAY 12TH JANUARY 2016

Children in Willow class are off to Butser Farm next week.

They will leave here at 9.15am and return to school for 4.00pm. They will be travelling by minibus and also Mrs Cole and Mrs Ralfs will be accompanying them.

During the day they will be exploring life at the beginning of the century in a Roman villa, make jewellery and learn the skills of an archaeologist.

Children can wear their own clothes but need waterproof coat and shoes (wellies if preferred)

Please don't forget to bring a packed lunch!

WINTER BALL - DELAYED

Due to Logistical problems, the Winter Ball has had to be postponed.

Thank you very much to everyone who has supported this event so far.

We are planning to rearrange the ball for May and hope that everyone will support this exciting fundraiser for the school.

If you have bought tickets for the Winter Ball, please come to the office for your refund.

Thank you

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

A new week, a new term and a new year...I hope that you return refreshed from your Christmas break. For the Church, Christmas continues until the 2nd of February (called Candlemas) – so there are white and gold decorations, and the Crib can stay up until then too. The 6th of January (called Epiphany) marks the 12th Day of Christmas when we remember the coming of the magi (Wise men) to Bethlehem to worship Jesus, the new born King. Perhaps you can extend your Christmas celebrations until then, if you can't keep them going to 2nd February? A prayer: Heavenly Father, Thank you for the wise men who brought gifts to Jesus. Help us to bring to him the gift of ourselves each day and to remember that Jesus loves everyone, everywhere. Amen

Vicar James
